

Unit 4 B "The 1627 Pilgrim Village"

page 64/ 1 About the Pilgrim Village

Lösung: 1. No, the Pilgrims were the first English people to settle there.

2. They speak and act like people who lived in 1627, so it's easier to imagine what the times were like.

3. By talking to the actors and stepping into their houses and seeing what they are doing.

4. They cook, work in the gardens and fields, build and repair houses and look after animals.

page 64/ 2 Hefteintrag

a.

Gerund constructions

after certain expressions with "it is"	after certain prepositions
it's no use trying	instead of speaking
it's no good mentioning	by talking
it's worth spending	apart from talking
	for cooking
	without using

b. it's no use: es nützt nichts zu... / es hat keinen Zweck..

it's no good: es hilft nicht... / es lohnt sich nicht zu...

it's worth: es lohnt sich zu...

instead of: anstatt zu...

by: indem...

apart from: außer zu...

for: ...um zu

without: ohne zu...

Workbook page 46/1

1 How would you reply? (PB p. 64/ex. 2) (Erwartungshorizont)

Think how you could reply. Use suitable expressions with gerunds and your own ideas.

it's no usesuggestthank you forhow aboutlook forward toit's worth

1. "I expect our day at Plimoth Plantation will be very interesting."

You: Yes! I 'm really looking forward to going there.

2. "Shall we go straight to the Pilgrim Village? Or do you want to look round Plymouth Harbor first?"

You: I suggest looking round Plymouth Harbor first.

3. "Is it true that the role players react strangely if you talk to them about 21st century life?"

You: Yes! It's no use talking to them about life today.

4. "How long do you think we should stay at the Pilgrim Village? Will an hour be enough?"

You: I've heard that it's worth spending at least two hours there.

5. "There's a delicious smell – it's coming from that house over there!"

You: Mmm! How about watching them while they're cooking?

6. "You can also visit 'Mayflower II'. That's a copy of the original ship the Pilgrims sailed on."

You: That's useful to know! Thank you for telling us about it.